ABOUT US

Welcome to the world through my lens!

I'm Malcolm Lismore, a passionate freelance photographer based on the stunning North West coast of Scotland. My love for photography is deeply rooted in my fascination with the natural world. I find endless inspiration in the rugged Scottish landscapes, the diverse wildlife, and the serene coastal birds. Each photograph is a story, a moment captured in time, showcasing the raw beauty of our surroundings. With years of experience, I've refined my skills to create images that are not only visually captivating but also emotionally resonant. While my heart lies in landscape and wildlife photography, my portfolio also includes weddings, portraits, and special events. My aim is to capture the essence of each moment, whether it's the tranquility of a sunset over the Highlands or the joy of a couple on their wedding day. Thank you for visiting my website. I invite you to explore my gallery, get a glimpse of my work, and feel the stories each image tells. Whether you're looking for breathtaking landscapes or heartfelt moments from special occasions, I am here to help you preserve those memories. Let's create something beautiful together.

Passion for Photography

Malcolm's biggest passion lies in the natural world. His love for the raw beauty of the Scottish landscape, diverse wildlife, and coastal scenes is evident in every photograph he captures. Malcolm believes in freezing fleeting moments in time, turning them into everlasting memories.

Admin Panel Front End

The screenshot displays a modern web-based admin panel interface. At the top, there's a header bar with various icons and a search bar. Below it is a navigation sidebar containing links like 'Dashboard', 'CRM', 'Report', 'Image', 'Message', and 'Logout'. The main content area features a dashboard with three large cards: 'Annual Sales Q3' (15,000), 'Inbox Tickets Q3' (45,6334), and 'Visitors Online' (95,5741). Below these are two charts: 'Visit And Sales Statistics' (a grouped bar chart) and 'Traffic Sources' (a donut chart). A section for 'Recent Tickets' lists an item from 'David Day' with subject 'Ticket required' and status 'Open'. Below the dashboard are four product images arranged in a grid: a black leather strap watch, a white keyboard being typed on, a dark notebook with a yellow ribbon, and a laptop on a desk with a mouse. At the bottom of the page are two more images: a dining room with a long black table and white chairs, and a group of people in a meeting room with a map on the wall.

About Page

ABOUT US

Welcome to the world through my lens!

I'm Malcolm Lismore, a passionate freelance photographer based on the stunning North West coast of Scotland. My love for photography is deeply rooted in my fascination with the natural world. I find endless inspiration in the rugged Scottish landscapes, the diverse wildlife, and the serene coastal birds. Each photograph is a story, a moment captured in time, showcasing the raw beauty of our surroundings. With years of experience, I've refined my skills to create images that are not only visually captivating but also emotionally resonant. While my heart lies in landscape and wildlife photography, my portfolio also includes weddings, portraits, and special events. My aim is to capture the essence of each moment, whether it's the tranquility of a sunset over the Highlands or the joy of a couple on their wedding day. Thank you for visiting my website. I invite you to explore my gallery, get a glimpse of my work, and feel the stories each image tells. Whether you're looking for breathtaking landscapes or heartfelt moments from special occasions, I am here to help you preserve those memories. Let's create something beautiful together.

Passion for Photography

Malcolm's biggest passion lies in the natural world. His love for the raw beauty of the Scottish landscape, diverse wildlife, and coastal scenes is evident in every photograph he captures. Malcolm believes in freezing fleeting moments in time, turning them into everlasting memories.
